HOW TO USE THESE PRAYERS

When we walk through the church year, something beautiful and life-changing happens: we actually walk with Jesus: through his birth, life, ministry, death, resurrection, and mission. And when we journey with him, we see that our lives aren't random—that our own stories fit into his story and find a greater joy and purpose than we ever could trying to craft our own.

This story begins with Advent, a season of waiting and watching for Jesus to arrive and breathe his hope into those dead and dry places in our world and in our hearts.

An Advent wreath is a simple but beautiful way to remind us that Christ brings light into the world to scatter the darkness. Your wreath has 5 candles (three purple, one pink, one white, or all white with colored ribbons) that you light at dinner or some other time. Each week, light one more of the four candles until on Christmas Eve or day when you light the white candle—the Christ Candle.

As you light the candles, you can follow along with the prayer, songs, and Scriptures in this devotional. Customize, experiment, adjust—whatever helps create some space to connect with the Lord. Invite a friend to join you, practice it with your family, or include it in your personal devotional time.

IDEAS FOR PARENTS:

When praying with children, you can do one or more of the elements listed, depending on the age of your kids, their attention span at that moment, etc. If your kids are older, have them look up one or more passages in the Bible and take turns reading them. Younger kids can memorize the greeting. Kids can also take turns saying the greeting, lighting the candles, or leading the prayer.

The closing prayer can be read by a parent or altogether if the kids are old enough to read along. With younger kids, just learn the first verse and chorus of O Come, O Come Emmanuel. With older kids, try and learn more of the verses.

Whether this is your first time practicing Advent or you've been observing Advent your entire life, we pray this season will be an invitation into the story of Jesus as he transforms our lives to look more like his.

In Christ,
Father Trevor McMaken
Pastor Brittany Yeager

Almighty and most merciful God, we remember before you all poor and neglected persons whom it would be easy for us to forget: the homeless and the destitute, the old and the sick, and all who have none to care for them. Help us to heal those who are broken in body or spirit, and to turn their sorrow into joy. Grant this, Father, for the love of your Son, who for our sake became poor, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Amen.

1/2 THE NINTH DAY OF CHRISTMAS

Genesis 2; John 1:29-42; Psalm 5,6

O God, who wonderfully created, and yet more wonderfully restored, the dignity of human nature: Grant that we may share the divine life of him who humbled himself to share our humanity, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

1/5 THE SECOND SUNDAY OF CHRISTMAS

Jeremiah 31:7-14, Psalm 84, Ephesians 1:3-14, Luke 2:22-40

O God, you have made of one blood all the peoples of the earth, and sent your blessed Son to preach peace to those who are far off and to those who are near: Grant that people everywhere may seek after you and find you, bring the nations into your fold, pour out your Spirit upon all flesh, and hasten the coming of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
